III. Public Comment

Jacqui Baxter-Rollins, of the TMA, appeared before the board to discuss the installation of a dedicated Bike Lane on South Broad Street. She related that she was advised the chief of police was against the idea. Chief Trail advised he had made no comment on the matter and if asked, by the committee, a traffic study with crash data would be completed. Baxter-Rollins was advised she should attend the Public Works meeting, which was in-session to present the matter there.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:02 PM.
