

How the Lansdale HRC Can Help

Ordinance #2018-1917 establishes a list of "protected classes." If you live or work in or have visited the Borough of Lansdale and you feel you have been discriminated against based on being a part of any protected class, you can request mediation by the Lansdale HRC.

Mediation

Mediation is the process in which a neutral third party acts as a facilitator to get people on both sides of a dispute talking. The goal is to come to a resolution that satisfies both parties. The wronged party retains the right to go to court, but our hope is that, through this process, we can assist both parties to come to peaceful resolutions.

In order to begin the process, please contact the Borough's Human Relations Commission by sending an email to HumanRelations@lansdale.org. A member of the HRC will contact you to discuss your concerns, determine whether you are a member of a protected class and send you a complaint form.

Complaint forms are also available online at <http://lansdale.org/662/Human-Relations-Commission> and are available at Lansdale Borough Hall which is located at One Vine Street, Suite 201, Lansdale, PA 19446.

WHAT IS DISCRIMINATION?

Unfair or unequal treatment of another person based upon a personal characteristic of an individual.

Examples of Discrimination:

- I dined at an establishment recently that had 1 single stall restroom for men and 1 designated for women. When I requested the key to the Women's Room, I was told I needed to use the Men's Room because I appear to be a male to them.
- I was applying for a new job. After starting, I was asked to cut my dreadlocks if I wanted to keep the job as a classroom aide.
- I notified my Supervisor of inappropriate jokes a co-worker was making about my race. The matter was ignored and the jokes continued.
